Q. How may a man overcome his temptations to distrust?

A. He must not giue credit<sup>o</sup> to Satans suggestions against Gods truth. but consider of Gods P power, & goodnesse, & vncchangeablenesse, & former<sup>c</sup> mercies, & free<sup>r</sup> grace in giuing vs his Son: so that weakness, vnworthinesse, want of feeling comfort should not dismay him. o Mat. 4. 3, 4 p Mat. 8. 2. Esa. 40. 27, 28. q Psal. 51. 1.
r Iere. 31. 3. / Psal. 77. 11. 12. s Rom. 5. 8, 9.

Q. What else must we doe?

A. He

A. Hee must consider what promises the Lord hath made to keepe<sup>n</sup> & vphold him, what encouragement<sup>w</sup> he hath giuen him to belecue, and how acceptable<sup>x</sup> a thing it is that he should so do. Mat. 16.18. Luk. 23.32. w 1.Iob. 3.23. x Mat. 8.10. & 15.28. Rom. 4.20.

Q. What other thing is to bee learned for the ouercomming of these temptations?

A. Wee must iudge of our selues not by our owne<sup>a</sup> present feeling, or by our owne<sup>b</sup> discerning the fruites of Grace, but by that we haue<sup>c</sup> felt, & the<sup>d</sup> fruits of grace which appeare to others. a Psal. 116.11. Psal. 13.7. b Psal. 51.10. c Psal. 77.11. d 2. Cor. 2.10, 11.

Q. What may be a further helpe?

A. It is good to<sup>e</sup> examine our hearts, & vse the aduice of<sup>f</sup> others; but we must know withall, the groaning<sup>g</sup> & after, and labouring to rest our wearied soule vpon the promises of grace, being neuer satisfied vntil our doubtfulnesse be remooued, will bring a good end. e Psa. 4.4. f 1. Thes. 5.14. g Mat. 11.28.

Q. Doe the fruites of the spirit alwayes appeare in the faithfull.

A. No: they are obscured in<sup>h</sup> our first conconuerſion, in the dayes of<sup>t</sup> ſecuritie, when we <sup>k</sup> leaue our firſt loue, in the time of<sup>t</sup> temptation, or of ſome relapſe<sup>m</sup> into finne. b Luke 5. 37, 38. i 1. Cor. 3. k Reue.

2. 4. l Pſal. 6. 1, 2, 3. m Pſal. 51. 10.

Q How ſhould a man recouer out of a relapſe

A By a ſpeedy <sup>n</sup> conſideration of what hee hath done, renewing his repentance, with ſorrow and ſhame, <sup>o</sup> bewailing his finne before God, reforming his life, and laying hold vpon the promiſe of mercy.
n Reue. 2. 5. o Iere. 31. 18, 19.

Q What priuiledges doe the godly enioy
as ſoone as this life is ended?

A Their glory then begins: for their bodies remaine<sup>p</sup> in the graue as in a bed of ſpices, & their ſoules <sup>q</sup> being perfectly freed from finne, are receiued into heauen, beholding<sup>r</sup> God and Chriſt immediately. p 1. Theſ. 4. 15. q Reuel. 14. 13.
r Mat. 5. 8. 1. Cor. 13. 12.

Q If this bee the ſtate of the godly, what ſhall become of the vngodly?

A Their bodies <sup>t</sup> ſhall rot in the graue,
& their ſoules <sup>t</sup> bee iudged to euerlaſting
woe. f Gene. 3. 19. i Luke 16. 22, 23.

Q When ſhall the happineſſe of the elect be conſummated?

A. A

A. At the dreadfull day of iudgment,
& the generall resurrection, u Psal. 17. 15

Q. Who shall be the iudge at that day?

A. Christ the w Lord and King of the Church, whoshal come in a most glorious & visible maner descending x 118. u heauen with a shout, and with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trumpet of God most royally attended with innumerable multitudes of mighty angels. w Acts 10. 42. & 17. 31. x 1. Q. When shall he come?

A. He will most surely come, but the time is x vnknowne, that we might euer a watch, and prepare for his comming. z Matth. 24. 36. a Matth. 24. 43.

Q. Whom shall he iudge?

A. His elect and b chosen, and all their enemies both euill c angels, and wicked men. b 1. Cor. 5. 10. c 2. Pet. 2. 4. Jude v. 16

Q. Seeing many of Gods elect people, and wicked men are rotted in the earth, how can they be iudged?

A. The very same bodies in d substance that at any time died, shall by the power of God be raised vp, and the soules be v-nited vnto them, inseparably to abide together for euermore. d 1. Cor. 15. 42, 43.

Q. What

Q. VVhat are wee to beleene concerning those who shall be found alive at the coming of Christ?

A. They shall bee changed in the twinkling of an eye, and so presented before the iudgement seate of Christ.
e 1. Cor. 15. 51, 52.

Q. In what manner shall he iudge?

A. Most strictly, both in respect of the persons iudged, & the things for which; but yet hee shall iudge most righteous & iudgement. f 2. Cor. 5. 10. g Acts 17. 31.

Q. VVhat shall be the issue of this iudgement to the wicked?

A. Euerlasting <sup>h</sup> perdition from the presence of the Lord, to all thole who ignorantly or wilfully, did contemn the Gospell. h 2. Thes. 1. 7, 8, 9.

Q. What shall bee the issue thereof to the godly?

A. The cleare vision of God & Christ, endlesse communion <sup>k</sup> with them, and euerlasting <sup>l</sup> peace & glory both in soules and body, in fuller measure then the heart of man can now comprehend, or any of the Saints enioyed before. i 1.
